Dear Dr. Sánchez Cordero,

It is with special pleasure that I contact you in my capacity of Secretary-General of the International Association of Legal Science (IALS).

I hereby confirm that you have been appointed First Vice-President of the IALS. You took office in the meeting of the IALS Executive Committee held on 17 June 2024. You were elected unanimously by the members of the IALS Executive Committee.

We are truly pleased to continue working with you in this leading position within the IALS. We likewise look forward to continue strengthening our ties with the Mexican National Committee, this time in your capacity of First Vice-President. IALS has found in you an architect for the development of comparative law across the globe, benefiting from your constant support of activities.

Your term in office will expire on 17 June 2027.

Sincerely, Agustín Parise
